

“The wolf will live with the lamb, the leopard will lie down with the goat, the calf and the lion and the yearling together; and a little child will lead them.”

Isaiah 11:6

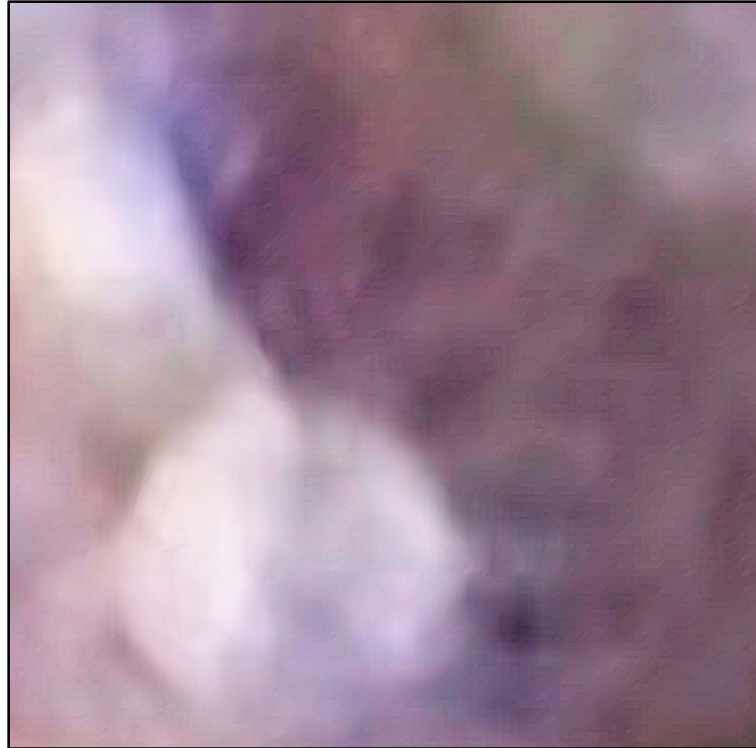

THE CITY GOD LOVES

I am a little teary-eyed as we come to the last chapter of our journey. Of course, this is just the beginning of so much more in Scripture.

Out of all the images in the photos, I have to say that there is one that has certainly sparked my curiosity. Perhaps you have thought about it too. I have to wonder, who is in the tunnel? There are a couple of figures in the first gate. So, who are they?

It took a little work, but I finally got some answers to my question. The picture has been enlarged and magnified. And inside the tunnel is the most amazing discovery. If you can believe it, there is a little boy holding a puppy! He is sitting on the pearl gate. I never would have dreamed of this in a million years.

The boy is wearing a hat and a striped shirt. He looks like a toddler. Perhaps he is the little one mentioned in Isaiah 11:6. The pup could even be the wolf from the same verse. And to think that God provides pearl chairs for His loved ones at the pearly gates!
